

Double Wedding Service Is Read

Announcement has been made of the double wedding ceremony on March 5, which united in marriage Miss Edith Gillas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Gillas, and Ron Pipkin, and Maxine Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence LaGore, and James Caine. The ceremony was read by the Rev. Paul Kunzman at his parsonage in Vancouver at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Pipkin wore a gray tailored suit with black accessories and a corsage of mixed flowers. Mrs. Caine was attired in a red dress-maker suit with black accessories and a mixed corsage.

Mrs. LaGore honored the newlyweds with a wedding supper in Little Abbey in the Mallory hotel in Portland. Both couples are now living in Portland, but Mr. and Mrs. Pipkin expect to leave soon for California.

Jean Brunner Is Wed in Vancouver

The Lutheran church in Vancouver was the scene of a pretty ceremony on May 31, when Miss Jean Brunner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brunner, Camas, became the bride of Benjamin Straub, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Straub, Washougal. The Rev. L. C. Weitzenkamp read the double ring service at 2 o'clock.

The bride wore a beautiful white marquisette princess style gown made with a square neckline and three-quarter length sleeves, trimmed with ruffles. Her fingertip veil fell from a flowered crown and she carried a bouquet of white sweet peas and lilies of the valley, centered with gardenias.

She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Hugh Loy, who wore a blue net gown with a bouquet of pink carnations and sweet peas. Pete Straub attended his brother.

A reception in the church basement followed the ceremony. Mrs. George Hammer finished cutting the cake and Mrs. John Brunner poured.

The couple left immediately for the Oregon beaches on a short wedding trip. For traveling, Mrs. Straub wore a lime green suit with matching top coat, and the gardenias from her bridal bouquet.

May Triplett Is Bride In Wednesday Ceremony

A candlelight ceremony in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Triplett Wednesday evening, July 25, united in marriage their daughter, Viola May, to Carl W. Speer. Judge B. L. Dailey read the ceremony at 7:30 in a setting of gladioli and candelabra.

The bride wore a black street dress with a corsage of gardenias, rosebuds and baby breath. She was attended by Mrs. Tommy Noland, who wore a black dress and a Talisman rosebud corsage. The groom was attended by Mr. Triplett.

A reception followed the ceremony. The couple plans to live in Camas.
